THE PROBLEM

Plant Shop / Nursery: Why Traditional Marketing Fails

Home Depot Has the Basics Covered

Mass-market garden centers capture the commodity plant market. Your shop wins through curation and rare finds — but only if local plant parents know you exist.

Plant Content Is Massively Popular, But You're Not in It

#PlantTikTok has billions of views. Local plant shops that appear in this content see explosive growth. Those that don't are invisible.

Seasonal Demand Needs Year-Round Awareness

Spring planting season is your peak — but customers need to know about you before March. Build community presence through winter ambassador content.
